

SHOT BY HIS WIFE

Desparate Deed of a Prominent Detroit Woman.

SHE FIRED TWO SHOTS AT HIM

She Had Applied for a Divorce, and When He Went to Remove His Belongings She Killed Him.

Detroit, Mich., March 3.—Mrs. C. K. Ayers, one of the most highly connected women in the city, on Wednesday night shot her husband twice in the lungs, and he now lies dying at Harper's hospital of the wounds inflicted. Mrs. Ayers began suit for divorce against her husband some months ago, and, pending the result, obtained an injunction preventing the husband from visiting their home. The supreme court on Wednesday quashed the injunction, and Ayers at once went to his house to remove some of his more valuable belongings. Mrs. Ayers met him on the doorstep, and before he could prevent her she pulled a 44-caliber revolver and fired two shots into his breast. Ayers fell mortally wounded, and cannot survive the night. His wife was at once locked up, but refuses to make any statement.
